Where does a dog go if his tail falls off? A retailer.

If you're being chased by a police dog, try not to go through a tunnel, then onto a seesaw, then jump through a hoop of fire. They're trained for that.

My pony has a sore throat. He's a little hoarse.

When dog food is new and improved with a better taste, who tests it?

I was in Kenya and I spent two weeks on a Land Rover safari. What a waste of time, I didn't see any Land Rovers.

I'm against animal testing. They get all nervous, confused and start answering the wrong questions.

One rat said to the other rat: "I've got this psychologist well trained. Every time I ring this bell he brings me food".

Two parrots are sitting on a perch. One says to the other, 'Can you smell fish?'

People who keep dogs are cowards who haven't got the guts to bite people themselves.

Two elephants walk off a cliff. Boom, boom.

I've got the memory of an elephant, I remember one time I went to the zoo and saw an elephant.

The shark must be the stupidest animal. Can't he figure out it's better swimming a few feet lower on approach? When is he going to realize that the fin is tipping everyone off?

I wonder if other dogs think poodles are members of a weird religious cult.

The guys at the golf course asked me to name an actress I would like to be stuck in an elevator with. I told them the one who knows how to fix elevators.

You can tell a lot about a woman's mood by just by her hands. For instance, if they are holding a gun, she's probably angry.

My neighbor was working in his yard when he was startled by a late model car that came crashing through his hedge and ended up in his front lawn.

He rushed to help an elderly lady driver out of the car and sat her down on a lawn chair. He said with excitement, "You appear quite elderly to be driving."

"Well, yes, I am," she replied proudly. "I'll be 97 next month, and I am now old enough that I don't even need a driver's license anymore."

"You don't need a driver's license anymore?!?" he said.

"That's right! The last time I went to my doctor, he examined me and asked if I had a driver's license. I told him 'yes' and handed it to him. He took scissors out of the drawer, cut the license into pieces, and threw them in the waste basket, saying, 'You won't need this anymore'. So I thanked him and left!"

Some days the best thing about my job is that the chair spins.

I don't like making plans for the day, because then the word "premeditated" gets thrown around the courtroom.

My favorite exercise around the gym would probably be judging.

Sometimes you have to burn a few bridges to keep the crazies from following you.
